Attention is the beginning.

The campaign continues through acquisition, conversion and follow-up.

01 Attention

Content creates relevance, familiarity and demand.

02 Acquisition

Ads connect the offer with the right audience.

03 Conversion

Forms and landing pages reduce friction.

04 Automation

Workflows support response speed and handoffs.

05 Growth

Budget follows the combinations that work.

The system after the lead

Faster follow-through.

Morrow & Pine

Paid acquisition strategy

Meta and TikTok for discovery. Google Search and Shopping for purchase intent.

Product context, reviews, dimensions, shipping clarity and bundles support conversion.

Independent concept, no historical results claimed

An acquisition blueprint

01

Discovery

Room transformations, product demonstrations and creator-style hooks.

02

Intent

Category search terms, product feeds and focused landing pages.

03

Conversion

Retargeting, reviews, shipping clarity and checkout confidence.

04

Scale

Move budget based on purchase economics and creative response.

Measurement: Meta Pixel + CAPI, GA4, Google Ads and TikTok Pixel

Success measures: CAC, purchase CVR, ROAS, AOV and new-customer revenue

Glow Theory

A TikTok-first creative strategy

Routine-based UGC, texture demonstrations and native creator videos. Spark Ads amplify strong creator posts.

Independent concept. No historical results claimed.

The creative is the test.

Problem hook

Pain-led opener with a product-texture demonstration.

Routine and proof

Creator voiceover, routine and close-up product use.

Campaign structure

US prospecting, warm retargeting and multiple hooks.

Decision framework

Review watch quality and purchase intent. Refresh angles as fatigue grows.

Hook rate, 6-second view rate, CTR, CPA, CVR and ROAS

The decisions behind the work

Data before decisions

Campaign and audience data guide where budget and effort go.

Channel flexibility

Choose platforms around the business objective and campaign response.

Economics first

Review acquisition cost, conversion rate, revenue and ROAS.

Creative quality

Test messages and formats that help the audience understand the offer.
